AMAZING SUPPORT FROM PEOPLE LIKE YOU HAS HELPED SO MANY SICK AND INJURED PETS IN 2020. ON BEHALF OF THEM ALL, THANK YOU SO MUCH

Rosie

Treasured pet Rosie was rushed to her local Pet Hospital with life-threatening head injuries. Thanks to the quick actions of her owners and PDSA staff, our vets could perform emergency surgery and save Rosie's life. It was touch and go, but Rosie's now back on her feet and doing great.

Honey

When Honey, a Dogue de Bordeaux, was rushed into a PDSA Pet Hospital suffering with GDV (Gastric Dilatation-Volvulus), her odds of survival were small. 'Twisted stomach' can be fatal, so our vets had to act fast. After urgent surgery and slow improvements, Honey pulled through to make a full recovery.

Buddy

Five-month-old kitten Buddy was tragically hit by a car, crushing his back legs. PDSA vets and nurses spent three hours pinning the broken bones in his tiny legs back together, in a life or death operation. Buddy, who means the world to his owners, made it through the operation and is making a steady recovery.
