

Pet Protectors play – Changing Places

Setting the scene

It's morning in the park and the Pet Protectors gang are hanging out and having a chat.

- Amber (Gets up and approaches the audience)
Hello, my name is Amber. I'm a very intelligent cat, and I like to look good.
- Pickles (Gets up and approaches the audience)
I'm Pickles, I'm a rabbit and I love to exercise; I'm very fit and healthy.
- Dodger (Gets up and approaches the audience)
I'm a Guinea Pig and my name is Dodger. I really enjoy hanging around with my friends and skateboarding, I think it's so much fun.
- Sparky (Gets up and approaches the audience)
And last but not least, I'm Sparky the dog, I'm the youngest of the gang and I have lots and lots of energy.
- Amber
You're going to hear a story about a very serious issue.
(As Amber talks the rest of the gang go offstage and sit in the front row with the audience)
I want to talk about some people who don't look after their pets properly.
- Sparky
Surely everyone looks after their pets. If they've got a pet, they love them, don't they?
- Pickles
Amber's right, not all people look after their pets properly. But there are some really nice people around who do love their pets. People called Pet Protectors.
- Amber
That's right, Pet Protectors are really nice people who look after their pets – here come some of them.
(Amber moves to one side now as the Pet Protectors enter, followed by SuperVet.)
- Pet Protectors
Enter singing their song.
- Amber
Hey SuperVet, what are you doing here?
- SuperVet
I'm here with the Pet Protectors to talk about what pets need to be happy and healthy. Does anyone here know what five things pets need to be happy and healthy?
(Hopefully some people from the audience will give some suggestions; if not the Pet Protectors animals can give some answers.)
We've also been trying to talk to Pet Neglectors. They don't look after their pets, I saw them earlier and their animals are really sad, lonely and unhealthy.

Sparky	I can't believe there's a group of people who don't look after their pets.
SuperVet	Look, here they are. (Pet Neglecters enter with their pets all looking bedraggled. Pets sit in cages, the dog is tied to a tree and they all look very unhappy). (The Pet Protectors can't believe what they see; they go and sit next to the pets.)
Pet Neglectors	We're the Pet Neglectors, look at our pets, they're miserable!
Neglected Pets	(A sentence is said by a pet.) We don't like our owners. They neglect us. Sometimes they even forget to feed us. They don't show us any attention. They just don't care.
Pet Neglectors	Yeah, well we want time to play; having fun and staying out all day. We have dogs that we don't walk and we have rabbits out in the cold, cats that are starving and mice that have no space.
Dog	But don't you see, I need a walk and I need a wee! (Crosses his legs)
Pet Neglectors	We've got rabbits, mice and cats. They can look after themselves, while we play in the park with our pals.
Cat	(Meows) They put me out in the snow and rain and don't let me in again.
Budgie	Tweet, tweet, I'm a Budgie and they keep me in a tiny cage.
Fish	I'm a fish and I have to live in a slimy, green tank; it's very dirty! (The lights go down, hours have passed and the Pet Neglectors have been out all day. The Pet Neglectors are on one side of the stage talking.)
Pet Protectors	(They approach the Pet Neglectors.) What are you doing, your pets are suffering; don't you care?
Pet Neglectors	No we don't, why should we care?
Pet Protectors	(Huddle together) What can we do? These Pet Neglectors need to be taught a lesson. It isn't right that their animals are suffering!
One of the Pet Protectors	I know, where's SuperVet? He can help!

SuperVet	(He approaches the gang) I'm here, what's wrong?
Pet Protectors	Pets belonging to the Pet Neglectors aren't cared about by their owners. We need to show them how their pets feel.
SuperVet	(Turns to the audience) I'm going to need your help. I'm going to do some magic, to show the Pet Neglectors how badly they treat their pets. We need to say the words 'Vice Versa', lots of times, starting very quietly and then getting louder. Repeat after me: Vice Versa, Vice Versa, Vice Versa, Vice Versa, Vice Versa, Vice Versa, Vice Versa. (Continue until the whole audience is saying the words loudly.) (There's a flash of light and a roll of drums. The Pet Neglectors and their pets go offstage and come back on having swapped roles. The Pet Neglectors are now unhappy, stuck in small cages and tied to a tree.)
Neglected Pets	(Talking to the Pet Neglectors) Now we're in charge. We'll see how you like being mistreated. (The pets of the Pet Neglectors laugh and move off stage, the lights come up and then start to dim again.)
Amber	The Pet Neglectors pets have been away all night and most of the day. The Pet Neglectors are feeling very sorry for themselves. Oh, here come their pets now. (Pet Neglectors pets enter)
Pet Neglectors	(All together) (One by one)	Hey, help us. I want to go to the toilet. I'm hungry. I think I've got fleas. I've got toothache. I've got a cough. My stomach hurts. I need a walk. I need somewhere comfy to sleep.
Neglected Pets	Well we don't care, we're having fun.
Pet Neglectors	Please, please, please help us. (Chant)	Oh please help us, we're so sad. We didn't mean to be so bad. OK, we didn't give our pets the care they needed. Even though they cried and pleaded. Forgive us please, forgive us please. We are so very sorry!  (They all cry)

SuperVet

(He enters the stage and turns to the audience)

Shall we forgive them? Shall we give them another chance?

(Hopefully the audience will say yes)

OK, I need your help again. Can anyone remember the magic words we used earlier?

(Hopefully someone from the audience will shout out the words)

Good we need to chant it like we did before. Except this time we need to be much louder. Repeat after me: Vice Versa, Vice Versa, Vice Versa, Vice Versa, Vice Versa

(Keep chanting until the audience is chanting the words loudly.)

(A flash of light and a roll of drums, Pet Neglectors and their pets leave the stage and return in their normal roles, except the Pet Neglectors are feeding, brushing and playing with their pets. The Pet Protectors and the gang come onstage.)

Dodger

Now the thoughtless Pet Neglectors have become kind Pet Protectors. They've had a fright and now they've learned to do what's right.

Pickles

If you've got a pet at home, a great big dog or a tiny mouse; remember, they need your care and they want you to be there – to give them what they need.

Sparky

Not too little and not too much. Remember to groom them with a comb or brush.

Amber

Keep them clean, don't be mean.

SuperVet

Take them to the vet if they're ill, and make a promise that you will.

Whole gang

(Including pet protectors)

Always be your pet's best friend!
