

Prevention

Tooth brushing

Regular tooth brushing is the best way to prevent dental disease. Brushing removes plaque before it turns into solid tartar.

Check ups

Regular dental checks with your vet will also help to stop serious problems developing.

Published: October 2018